How SeekOut Spot works

1. Define success from the beginning

A Spot recruiter and your hiring manager align on what good looks like. AI agents develop a detailed evaluation rubric that understands your ideal candidate beyond basic keywords.

2. AI-powered, deep candidate research

Spot AI agents analyze hundreds of candidate profiles, performing detailed evaluations of each candidate's experience and accomplishments in line with your defined rubric.

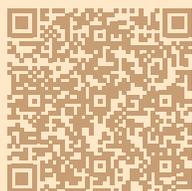

Trusted by leading enterprises, global organizations rely on SeekOut Spot for efficient, strategic recruitment that delivers measurable improvements in hiring speed, candidate quality, and operational agility.

3. Personalized outreach, authentic interest

AI agents tailor outreach messages that encourage interest by emphasizing why your opportunity is uniquely suited for each candidate.

4. Expertly curated matches in only three days

You'll get a shortlist of pre-vetted, highly qualified candidates ready for interviews. Spot reduces the search and outreach process from weeks to just days.
